Summary of nutritional evaluation:

The Santa Cruz County Blaine Street Corrections Facility is a low security facility that houses only females. It is adjacent to the Sant Cruz Main Jail, where meals are transported after arriving from the Rountree Facility kitchen. There is not a kitchen in the facility, and no food preparation occurs there. The menus follow the approved menus for adults for all of Santa Cruz Corrections facilities and meet the current Dietary Guidelines for Americans. All Title 15 regulations are met.

There is a new garden area being developed in the back of Blaine Street women's facility through a local grant, that will allow the incarcerated persons of the facility to grow and harvest food. Although this has no impact on the menus and nutrition of the meals, it is nice to see a local garden and can only enhance the nutrition palette of the all who use the garden space.
